Animal Control:

In September of 2018, the Town Council voted to adopt Boone County's Animal Control Ordinance. This includes animals being kept under secure restraint. This can be, but is not limited to; a fence of adequate design and strength, a kennel, a tether, or inside the home. If your animal is getting out to run loose on a regular basis, a alternate means of restraint is most likely needed. Boone County Animal Control can, and will, issue citations for violations. The full ordinance can be found at:
